

Dear

Welcome to the first SAICE Bulletin. The Bulletin is a refreshed look of the SAICE Newsletter that you have been receiving, but has incorporated new sections and new content with the aim to bring our members relevant content and news as they happen in SAICE.

If you have any content that you would like featured in the Bulletin, and any feedback you have on the content that is featured, please get in touch with us on marketing@saice.org.za.

We would also like to extend our sincere apologies to the individuals who were addressed by their last name in the last issue of the SAICE Newsletter. This was a technical error on the system, kindly please alert marketing@saice.org.za if you experience this again.

Commemorating National Water Week

From the 20th to the 26th of March, it is National Water Week. The country is experiencing massive water issues and at this time, we all need to strive to use water sparingly!

“The National Water Week campaign is aimed at educating the public about their responsibility in water conservation initiatives, raising awareness around the need to protect and conserve the country's water resources”.

SAICE Continues to Celebrate 120 Years

SAICE continues to celebrate 120 years in 2023. If any branch, division and/or student chapter has content which commemorates this milestone, please feel free to share this with the SAICE National Office Marketing department on marketing@saice.org.za, and we will feature this on the SAICE social media platforms.

SAICE Press Releases

SAICE engages with its media stakeholders to report on issues which affect the Built Environment on an on-going basis. Since the beginning of 2023, we have engaged on several topics of interest. These press releases can be found on the below links.

- Click here for the SAICE press release regarding the recent National Shutdown
- Click here for the SAICE press releases

Latest SAICE Civil Engineering Magazine and Journal

SAICE releases a monthly Civil Engineering Magazine and a quarterly Civil Engineering Journal, below you can find the recent versions of these engaging publications.

Click here to view highlights from the March issue

Click here to read the full publication

Enter our know your sector competition on page 8 of the latest issue of Civil Engineering.

Competition closes on 15 April 2023.

Click Here to enter the competition

Upcoming SAICE CPD Courses

Click here to register

Click here to register

GCC2015 Call For Comments Closes on the 30th of March

The GCC2015 has been updated with the intention of publishing a new GCC2023. Members have been sent the links to view the documents and template to comment on.

Alternatively, you can also go to the SAICE website and review all document. If you wish to provide input, please send your inputs to GCC2023@saice.org.za.

Upcoming SAICE CPD Events

Click here to register

Click here to register

Click here to register

The SAICE Transport Division is offering to receive comments from our members and submit these as a collective from the SAICE Transport Division.

Comments are required in writing, and to assist the division in the collation of comments, comments should be provided in a standard format.

All comments should be sent to debbie@saice.org.za by 31 March 2023.

Click here to add your comments

SAICE Member Benefits

As a SAICE member, you receive a variety of benefits which assist you in staying ahead in your career advancement.

Click here for SAICE connect benefits

Click here for Solace benefits

Click here for Membership benefits

Click here to purchase the GCC digital copy

Click here to purchase the GCC hard copy

Click here to apply for SAICE student membership

